EVERYDAY HISTORIES

Brierley Hill Heritage Open Day

SATURDAY 19TH SEPTEMBER

Explore the places you know, discover new stories and take part in a fantastic day celebrating the people, places and history that make Brierley Hill.

1

Brierley Hill Methodist Church 9am - 3pm

Explore the historic church and stained glass, then discover some of the remarkable people buried here on hourly graveyard walks. Tea and coffee available throughout the day.

2

The Civic 9am - 4pm

Discover the performers, audiences and memories that have shaped this much-loved venue through a special outdoor exhibition of photographs and stories.

3

Albion Street Church & The Storehouse 11am - 2pm

Explore the historic church, then head next door for a free community BBQ, live music, bouncy castle, face painting, badge making and tombola.

4

Brierley Hill Library 9am - 4pm

Discover old photographs, maps, unusual objects and stories from Brierley Hill's past, with Brier Rose crafts for all ages from 10am-12 noon.

5

Brierley Hill Market 9am - 4pm

Enjoy a Blinder of a Day with vintage style, live singing, dancing and plenty of market atmosphere. Dress up if you fancy and join the fun from 9am.

6

St Mary's RC Church 10am - 2:30pm

Explore this beautiful E. W. Pugin church with tours, displays, a mouse trail and activities, plus live harp and organ music, homemade cake and hot pork cobs.

7

St Michael's Church 10am - 4pm

Explore stained glass, memorials and hidden meanings, try brass rubbing and handbells, and even have a go at ringing one of the church bells.

8

Delph Stables 12pm - 4pm

Discover the remarkable canal heritage of Brierley Hill at the Grade II-listed Delph Stables, with heritage talks and children's activities beside the historic Nine Locks.

9

Brierley Hill in Bloom 9am - 4pm

Follow five specially designed planting schemes through the town and discover the people, places and industries that inspired them. Look closely for a few surprises hiding among the flowers too.

Turn over to follow the trail, find the hidden dragons and win fantastic prizes!

Scan the QR code or visit brierleyhill.net for full event details.

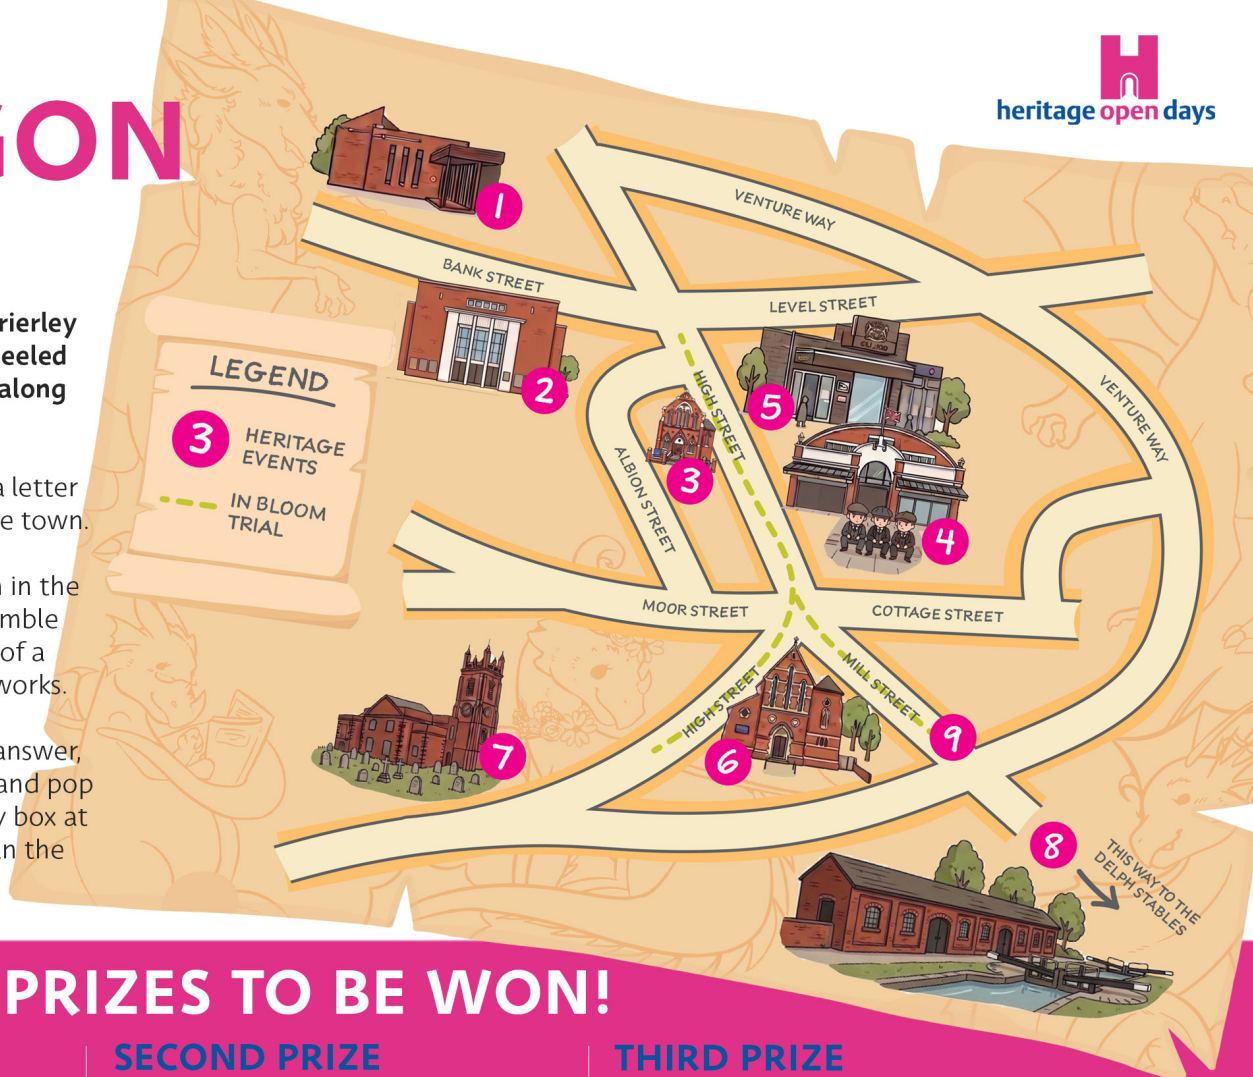

Follow the DRAGON TRAIL

Follow the trail around Brierley Hill and keep your eyes peeled for eight dragons hiding along the way.

Each dragon is guarding a letter at one of the events in the town.

Find all eight, write them in the boxes below, then unscramble them to reveal the name of a famous Brierley Hill steelworks.

Once you've cracked the answer, enter your details below and pop your leaflet into the entry box at Brierley Hill Library, or scan the QR code to enter online.
